Constant Mews Early Career Publication Prize 2022

Entry Form

The Constant Mews Early Career Publication Prize is awarded to an Early Career Researcher (ECR) for the best article-length scholarly work in Constant’s broad areas of scholarly interest, the medieval history of religions, intellectual history, and textual editing and translation, published within the below date range, published within the previous three years.

Entry is open to:
   a. Current financial members of ANZAMEMS;
   b. ECRs within 10 years of award of a PhD or equivalent. Please note: To be eligible for the Maddern prize, you should be / have been an ECR at the date of the publication of your work;
   c. Citizens and Permanent Residents of Australia or New Zealand.

To be considered for the prize, the publication must:
   a. Be the work of a single author;
   b. Be between 5000 and 8000 words in length;
   c. Appear in a peer-reviewed journal or an edited collection;
   d. Have an official publication date from 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2021;
   e. Be based upon original research.

To enter, please email a completed Entry Form, along with the documentation listed below to info@anzamems.org by 5:00pm (AWST), 3 April 2022:
   a) Proof of citizenship or residency status;
   b) Proof of the date of award of your PhD or equivalent;
   c) A copy of your entry in its published form, along with proof of publication date (i.e., relevant front matter of the journal or edited collection);
   d) A statement regarding career interruptions, if requested to do so at Q5 below.

For full terms and conditions, please refer to the Bursaries & Prizes page on the ANZAMEMS website: http://anzamems.org/?page_id=8#Mews

1. Full name:
2. Affiliation:
3. Contact information:
   email address: mobile phone:
4. Date of award of PhD (or equivalent research degree):
5. Early career status
   For the purposes of this prize, ECR status can be claimed if you are within 10 years of the award of your PhD (or equivalent). An extension to this period may be granted, if you have experienced significant career interruption/s due to any one or more of the following circumstances (please circle all that apply):
   International relocation for post-doctoral or other research employment;
   Employment outside academia/your current academic discipline;
Care responsibilities;
Serious illness;
Maternity or parental leave;
Unemployment.

If claiming an extension, please provide a short statement (max. 200 words) addressing how, and the extent to which, these circumstances have interrupted your career.

6. Details of your entry (title, publication name, publisher details, date, pagination, etc.):

7. I certify that the details entered above are correct.

Signature: Date: