

AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND ASSOCIATION FOR MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN STUDIES

George Yule Essay Prize

Conditions of entry:

- Candidates must be financial members of the Association.
- Candidates must be currently enrolled postgraduates at a university in Australia or New Zealand, and proof of enrolment will be required on submission of the essay.
- It is expected that the essay will be a written version of a paper presented at the conference. While the aural version must be strictly limited to a delivery length of 20 minutes, a longer word-limit applies to the written version of the paper (see below).
- Essays submitted should be no more than 3500 words long (excluding footnotes), on a topic of the writer's choice within the fields of medieval and early modern studies.
- Each essay should be adequately footnoted and documented and include a bibliography. NB: The bibliography is not included in the word count.

Judging details:

- The essay will be judged by a panel consisting of the Vice-President of ANZAMEMS (New Zealand); Editor of Parergon; and two other members of ANZAMEMS.
- In the event that insufficient entries are received, or the standard of entries is not sufficiently high, the judging panel reserves the right not to award a prize for any given conference.

Prize details:

- The winner will receive $500 AUD in Prize money (or NZD equivalent).
- The writer of the winning paper will be encouraged to submit an expanded version of the paper for publication in Parergon, subject to the usual process of refereeing.
- The deadline for submissions will be determined by the ANZAMEMS Honours and Prizes sub-committee and advertised during the Conference call-for-papers and registration period.
- Administration of the prize, including arranging payment with the Treasurer, is the responsibility of the ANZAMEMS Honours and Prizes sub-committee.
- Payment of the prize (i.e., funds) is the responsibility of the Treasurer.
